TERRE DI BACCO TREVENEZIE

CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Venetto

Italy

Cabernet Sauvignon has a long history in Northern Italian wines, is among the most widespread and famous grapes of the world, and is particularly suited to produce red wine with outstanding quality and longevity. Our Cabernet Sauvignon is full-bodied and dry with unique elegance and well-balanced depth.

The cabernet grapes are harvested at full ripeness and undergo a traditional vinification at a controlled temperature. The average maturation period varies from 6 to 12 months.

Thanks to its roundness, this hefty red wine is perfect with spicy tomato-based sauces and grilled meats such as braised beef and pork ribs. It also pairs particularly well with savory and seasoned cheeses and first courses like Milanese risotto.

TERRE DI BACCO CHIANTI

SANGIOVESE

Venetto

Italy

Chianti is a very dry red wine and one of the most well-known Italian wines. It derives its name not from the grape used to make it, which is Sangiovese, but from the region where it is made. The Chianti area of Toscana is one of the most beautiful in the whole region, as well as the most well-known and appreciated in Italy by visitors from around the world.

The Sangiovese grapes are hand-picked and vinified with great care using the traditional method of fermentation, in the presence of the grape skins, to highlight the strong personality conferred by the soils of Chianti. After the malolactic fermentation, the wine matures in Slavonian oak barrels for 12 months.

Chianti is exquisite at highlighting the flavors of savory charcuterie boards and seasoned cheeses. It also pairs particularly well with first courses like pasta with tomato sauce and grilled meat main courses.

TERRE DI BACCO LANGHE

NEBBIOLO

Venetto

Italy

Nebbiolo is a black grape variety that lives almost exclusively in Italy. It is a thick-skinned grape known for both high tannin and acidity. Nebbiolo is most commonly associated with Northern Italy's Piemonte region where it has grown since at least the 13th century.

The Nebbiolo grapes are hand-harvested during the first fortnight in October and stripped for fermentation with maceration on the grape skins for 10 days in stainless steel tanks at a controlled temperature. The wine is then aged in oak casks for about six months and finally in stainless steel tanks.

This rich wine can accompany a whole meal by complementing pasta dishes, risotto, white and red meats, truffles dishes, and medium-aged cheeses.

TERRE DI BACCO PINOT GRIGIO DELLE VENEZIE

PINOT GRIGIO

Italy

Pinot Grigio is a zesty white wine that is refreshing on a hot summer's day. It makes a fine aperitif and is highly suited to every social occasion with or without food. As one of Northern Italy's points of reference for white wine, Pinot Grigio is the second most popular white wine in America.

The pinot grigio grapes are subjected to a delicate crush and soft pressing. Fermentation occurs at a controlled temperature of about 64°F/ 18°C, which preserves the great structure and minerals.

The result combines particularly well with delicate or fried appetizers, pasta courses with light sauces, soft cheeses, white meats, and light, flaky fish dishes, or crab.

TERRE DI BACCO SAUVIGNON BLANC TREVENEZIE

SAUVIGNON BLANC

Venetto

Italy

Sauvignon Blanc grapes, often called Sauvignon, originated in France and are grown in all regions of Italy, where arguably the best Italian example is found in the Veneto region. Our Sauvignon Blanc is dry, crisp, acidic, and fruity.

The sauvignon blanc grapes are manually harvested, soaked for a few hours with selected yeasts, and fermented below 20° C. Then, resting on the lees under the protection of nitrogen, maturation occurs in stainless steel tanks at controlled temperatures to avoid malolactic fermentation.

It pairs perfectly with delicate first courses, main courses with seafood, poultry, salad, and pasta, and is a nice match for cream or oil-based sauces.

TERRE DI BACCO PROSECCO DOC

SPARKLING

Italy

This sparkling wine from the province of Treviso, in the Northern Italian region of Veneto, is light to medium-bodied and meant to be consumed in its youth to enjoy its liveliness and freshness, most commonly as an aperitif.

Once the glera grapes have been harvested, they are transported to the winery where specially designed machinery presses the grapes very gently so that only the free-run juice from the heart of the grape is extracted.

The acidity in Prosecco will cut through any cream sauce or cheese, while the nutty almond flavor pairs excellently salads, fried appetizers, and appetizers of nutty-flavored cheeses, such as Gouda or cheese balls made with nuts.

POGGIO MANFREDI

TOSCANO ROSSO

Italy

A bold and delicious red blend from the Tuscany IGT. Expect well-balanced flavors and aromas of red fruit, along with a savory and spicy note. Made from a blend of 50% Merlot and 50% Sangiovese, this wine is known as a “Super Tuscan,” in which international grapes (Merlot) are blended with grapes native to the region (Sangiovese). This helps balance the wine’s flavors between the fruit notes of Merlot and the intensely savory characteristics of Sangiovese. In addition, this wine was aged in oak for 20 months and in the bottle for 4 months, helping to soften the flavors and increase richness. Pair our Poggio Manfredi Toscana Rosso with medium-to-rich dishes such as lamb, pork, or pasta with mushroom sauce.

ALBARINO SIN PALABRAS

ALBARIÑO

Ulla

D.O. Rias Baixas

Galicia, Spain

Green pruning, the removal of the lateral shoots and the lowering of bunches are made to improve their ventilation and maturation. A pre-selection of grapes is previously made in August. On 3rd September 2021 started the manual harvest of albarino from the oldest vineyards (+50 years old) The grapes were transported in cases with a capacity of 18 kg and vinified within the following 6 hours. Grapes were destemmed and after that the must is kept in a cold tank for 8 hours at 8°C. After a gentle pressing we get a low volume of must. Finally, the wine was in the stainless steel temperature controlled tank under 16°C where it was fermented with selected yeasts. No malolactic process.

SEÑORIO DE CRUCES

ALBARIÑO

D.O. Rias Baixas

Galicia, Spain

This wine is made of the careful selection of Albariograpes from our D.O. Rías Baixas. It combines the grapes grown in the coastal area with the grapes from the Ulla River subarea where our winery is situated. To obtain the characteristic varietal aromas, grapes are low-temperature macerated and juice is slowly fermented. These techniques, together with the knowledge of our winemakers, allow us to produce a delightful wine resulting in an exciting experience for the most demanding palates. Appearance: Clean, pale yellow with green hues. Nose: Apple and citrus aromas, surrounded by elegant mineral and a touch of wild floral tones. Taste: A display of appetizing vibrancy on the palate, with natural acidity and a nice finish.

TOI TOI MARLBOROUGH

SAUVIGNON BLANC

New Zealand

An outstanding regional expression, with balanced tropical, melon flavors with an elegant texture and lively persistent citrus notes.

Toi Toi Sauvignon Blanc is a showcase of Marlborough's Northern aspect. The fruit is predominantly grown in our two vineyards, Brookdale in Omaka Valley and Utawai nearer to the coast.

Both have fine clay based soils, but have differences in their micro-climates. We select rows in each of these sites that combine to create a striking but balanced style of Sauvignon Blanc. Nearer the coast brings a zesty and herbal notes, and from Brookdale we have tropical, aromatic flavors combined with a subtle minerality.
